LITTLE LAMBS that won't listen when big people tell them to stop speculating must be made to listen.

Yesterday, when the price of wool money, with which speculating is down, went to 29 per cent, they listened.

New York pawnbrokers are allowed to charge 13 per cent. When suitably respectable financiers charge 30 per cent, you may be sure somebody is making money. How lovely that moral lessons should pay a profit.

Fusspots for those that lead. Not so pleasant for little lambs. But they ought to know that when high finance starts to get them, discipline them and cure them, it will do all three.

Will Street yesterday was the "maddest" but by no means the "merriest" day in all the projected boom. Boom and the boomers felt like a high-powered car that runs into a stone wall. More than $500,000 shares of stock were sold, many selling because they had to.

The remarkable thing with money costing 30 per cent was that stocks did not drop lower, and that a "rally" should have come at the end. Lots of money in America. But little people may as well make up their minds that they are to be shaken out if they don't get out.

What the effect will be on general business remains to be seen. That question will interest the President just coming into office. It doesn't want a Hoover panic or Hoover hard times.

At 7 in the morning President Hoover "commenced the medicine ball" with friends. That exercise may be gentle or violent, depending on the weight and speed of the ball, the number playing and length of rest between throws.

Three under good conditions no one can shoot through the medicine ball without a doctor's approval. The medicine ball, however, is suddenly forward with a violent effort in the heart.

"Consider a ball over your head, you want from below the head, not from above the head, is the safer play."

While the President commences the medicine ball, which doesn't get the country anything, the popular market, Mayflower, sold out the people $100,000 a year. In the Philadelphia party, Mayflower from committee. Anybody wanting a comfortable night may soon be able to buy the Mayflower at a bargain.

President Hoover is interested in making airplanes useful. He sends every army plane, including three giant bombers, to attack a 15-mile jet fan in the Mississippi river at Bismarck, N. D. The machines will drop 600 bombs weighing 10,000 pounds of TNT. Bombing the ice works. If successful, may save extensive sections from flooding by the backed up waters of the Missouri.

What could such a collection of bombs do to one of our big cities, and how easily planes released from carriers could do to our cities what President Hoover will do to that iceberg.

The President, you may be sure, has thought about that.

Yesterday, March 26, will stand as an important day in the history of flying. At 10:30 a. m. the courageous Spanish flying Jimenez and Iglesias, landed at Bahia, Brazil, less than 48 hours after leaving Sevilla, a journey of 4000 miles.

The father of Maribel Pohl, the flying girl, in his own home, under the Arch of Triumph, and at the Notre Dame Cathedral, is ended. The old soldier lies in peace beside the glided ones of the inviolate, near the body of Napoleon.

At the sunrise yesterday at N. T. Express's out-of-date fort, Cassin's William, 21 guns were fired to express the nation's grief. Thereafter, at Castle William, and all other American army posts, signal guns were fired every half hour.

Many souls, coming much more than with the best of intention. But it didn't do Maribel Pohl much good.

The marshal commanded ten million men in the United States, France, Belgium, Great Britain, Italy and the United States, all obeyed his order.

Where is he now? What does he know? Is he the Napoleon of the Great Cornucopia, or Alexander, who, at 39, when he died, was more than any other conqueror? Did he have those famous United States guns, making a noise in honor of his funeral? Nobody on earth will ever know.

PARENTS FEAR YOUNG BROOKLINE GIRL AND SUITOR HAVE ELOPED

With marriage intentions filed at Manchester, N. H., and both principals "out of town," the possible elopement of Miss Ruth Elizabeth Carl, 21, of Clark rd., and Thomas Gordon Hale, 21, of Beacon st., members of prominent Brookline families, was news today. Attempts are being made by parents to block the wedding.

Mrs. Victor P. Carl, mother of the girl, was considerably upset over the ceremony. When informed of the intentions and said she hoped to head off the young people.

The mother of the boy, Mrs. Woodbury Hale, said she knew of no marriage intentions having been filed but that she, too, wished to block the wedding.

Both mothers have similar reasons for their objections. The youth of the couple and the fact that the boy is not yet 21, and that the girl is not yet 18, are sufficient in business to be able to support a wife.

'DAYLIGHT' RAID TOO LATE, JUDGE FREES RUM SUSPECT

Because prohibition officers started a house 10 minutes after sunset, Judge James M. Morton in federal court here today dismissed an indictment obtained against James J. Martin of Springfield.

The judge ordered all evidence obtained in the raid on Martin's home suppressed. The indictment, now quashed, charged Martin with the unlawful possession of three pints of liquor.

Judge Morton's ruling defined "daylight" as lasting only from sunrise to sunset and thereby set a precedent for the federal courts of the country. The prosecution vainly maintained that, by old English law and American usage, "daylight" lasted so long as there remained "sufficient sunlight to recognize a wanted person."

Counsel for the dry agents were urged to suggest in their pockets that prohibition officers could hardly carry almanacs in their pockets.

"They'd better consult almanacs if they don't know when the sunset is," the judge answered.

when it will bring its probe to an end with questioning of Mayor Nichols who was notified today to be on hand at the final session.

The leading witness today was Warren F. Freeman, the city's regular expert on real estate questions, who was revealed as recipient of a few of $100 a day when appearing in court in last session.

Freeman also admitted having an equity in property on Malabar st., West Roxbury, which was taken for a school site, and he said his record was recorded under the name of his attorney.

Freeman's attorney, Clapp to apologize came after questioning of Freeman ended. Chairman Dowling told him his conduct was most unprofessional and censurable to day.

"Notification to the mayor to appear tomorrow was by letter from Chairman L. Dowling, which did not state any courtesy on the city's chief executive."

Chairman Dowling stated point blank in the letter that this form of notification was in line of a subpoena, which he wanted might be issued if the mayor did not appear. He also dispensed with the "dear" in the salutation. Mayor Nichols replied on the other hand, was in accordance with the rules of etiquette.

The public hearings, which are being held in the school committee rooms, 15 Beacon st., will end after the mayor's appearance as a witness.

Large Federal Armies in Drive to Crush Rebels

Mexico City, March 27 (AP)—Announcement that the rebel army under General J. Gonzalo Escobar had abandoned its position at Escobedo, falling back toward Jimenez, was contained today in an official dispatch from Gen. Plutarco Elias Calles, minister of war in active charge of federal troops in the field.

Gen. Calles expressed the hope the rebels would make good at Jimenez, in which case he said the federal would utterly destroy the rebels.

The dispatch said the federal army's march had succeeded in opening the difficult desert of the northern Durango state, arriving at Jaral Garcia, which is 75 miles south of Jimenez, a principal concentration point of the rebels.

On the west coast Gen. Cardenas is organizing a powerful federal force to pursue the rebel army retreating after its battle with the federal army.

Gen. Cardenas, the president announced, will be approximately 12,000 men.

The rebels came from the army of the north, detached for service on the coast, following completion of the plans at Torreon.

"There is no need of this eloping business and it is only going to hurt her. She became engaged six months ago with the understanding that they would not be married for a year or two."

"I had a slight suspicion of this a short time ago but I passed off again. That was when Ruth asked me if after people eloped they could be married again in the church. I told her there would be no necessity for it."

Both young Hale met in Brookline high school and both were graduated with the same class.

Then Miss Carl attended Miss McDermott's fashionable finishing school for girls in the Back Bay, while Hale went to work.

BOSTON MEN IN SAILOR CHARGES PROBE OF WILD PARTIES CAPTAIN WITH BRUTALITY

Charges that he was chained up in the forepeak of the American freighter West Noabo in the heat of a boiling African sun in retaliation for complaints aboard ship were made by George E. Watts, member of the crew, today.

Watts, who was brought ashore in troops when the steamer docked yesterday, and charged with smuggling an Oriental drug aboard the vessel, appeared before U. S. Commissioner Jone and claimed that his captain, Henrik Christensen, had "framed" him.

The seaman, questioned by the master of the freighter, had discovered in his bunk a letter written by Watts to the U. S. Shipping board complaining of conditions aboard ship in an African port.

The captain admitted a cross-examination the existence of the letter, and also that women were aboard the freighter, but denied he had disciplined the seaman in retaliation and refused to give details of the visit of the women.

Watts said that after discovering the letter Capt. Christensen purported to have found 18 packages of the drug.

The captain ordered me into the hold. I was chained and for three days and nights I was chained hand and foot to the forepeak African sun on a diet of bread and water.

NEWARK, N. Richard Aldwain, manager of the Newark Airport.

Lou Foote, the pilot of the ill-fated plane, and the sole survivor, is in a critical condition in the hospital.

KING RECEIVES ARCHBISHOPS

Bogor, England, March 27 (AP)—For the first time since the beginning of his illness in November, King George today performed an official ceremony at Craigwell House, where he is recuperating.

The occasion was a reception to the new archbishops of Canterbury and York who came to do homage to their sovereign and kiss his hand on their appointments.

On entering a room on a ground floor which had been specially prepared for the occasion and in which the king was waiting with the gentlemen of his household, the two archbishops, Kewell, swore allegiance, kissed hands and departed, the ceremony lasting only a few minutes.

"It has certainly recommended Bon-Tone to everyone," says Mrs. Marion T. Hill, of 414 E. 8th St., So. Boston. "It is a godsend to sufferers and worth its weight in gold. For about two years I have suffered from stomach trouble and have taken several different kinds of medicine that was prescribed for me, but to no avail. I had nervous headaches and my nerves were so upset I could not sleep. I had to take a bottle of Bon-Tone after each meal. Now I am more than pleased with the results. I can eat now without having indigestion or dyspepsia and my nerves are wonderfully improved and I sleep much better. I haven't had a headache since I took Bon-Tone and constipation has been corrected. Bon-Tone certainly is just what I advertised as a cure for. I feel 100% better although I have taken but one bottle so far."

Mrs. HILL
414 E. 8TH. ST.
BOSTON, MASS.

Mr. Roy Bailey, popular member of Lieutenant Norman P. Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, states: "I was in a general rundown condition. I felt tired and drabby and with little or no ambition. Gas that would form after eating would distress me terribly, causing me to belch and to feel uncomfortable. I believe I had a bad cold. My kids were sick and I had pains in my back. I had only taken Bon-Ton stomach pills. I then began to feel better and more active and stronger. My stomach was restored to normal condition with the result that I had no more trouble with gas, and constipation, from which I also suffered, was entirely corrected. I am feeling better than I have in years and I credit it all to Bon-Ton."

Hundreds of Testimonials For This Great Remedy Are Received Daily From All Over the United States

Mrs. Josephine Beck, who has resided in East Boston all her life, states: "I certainly did suffer with indigestion. Gas would form after eating and at times would be expelled with a loud noise. I also suffered with constipation. I also get pains in my back and my nerves became terribly upset and I didn't know what it was to have a good night's rest, instead my sleep was fitful and broken. Constipation was another source of complaint and I was obliged to resort to laxative compounds, however, Dr. Rona-Tone has corrected this condition as well as putting my stomach in order, so that I no longer suffer so with gas and indigestion. My nerves are in fine shape now and I can get a good night's sleep and awaken in the morning refreshed to resume my daily routine for the day. Dr. Rona-Tone has done me a world of good and I wish to recommend it to anyone suffering as I did."

MRS. JOSEPHINE BECK
11 CROSS ST.
E. BOSTON MASS.

MR. CHARLES F. KING
3 TRULL ST.
DORCHESTER, MASS.

Mr. Charles King, employed by the City of Boston, Dept. of Water Works, and a member of American Legion No. 154, Dorchester, says: "I haven't felt so well in four years as I do now, thanks to Bon-Tone. My food just wouldn't digest properly but would sour and ferment and form gas in my stomach. I would feel bloated andloat terribly and belch gas a lot and would often get pains in my stomach. Constipation was another complaint and this was becoming chronic. I read so much about this Bon-Tone that I decided to give it a trial, and it certainly has proved to be better than anything I have taken before. The results and the results I have received are great. All that bloated feeling is gone and constipation has been banished and my food digests now as it should instead of forming gas. I am very glad to endorse this remedy, for it has given me wonderful relief."

Up until three months ago no one in Boston knew anything about Bon-Tone. Neither Epstein's Drug Store nor any other druggist had ever sold a bottle.

Right from the start BON-TONE "made good." Folks who had been tortured so with indigestion, heartburn, acid stomach and other forms of stomach trouble, that they hadn't eaten a square meal in years, began to regain their appetites and found their troubles relieved almost immediately. Stomach troubles were only a small portion of the pains thousands of local citizens were forced to endure—dizzy spells, headaches, nervousness, constipation—a hundred other troubles were soon relieved by BON-TONE.

NON-TONE is no ordinary medicine. It does not contain narcotics to deaden the pain temporarily or stimulants to brace you up for a short time. It does not treat symptoms but goes deep down into the very root of your troubles.

10,000 bottles in less than four months! That's a record that has never been equalled.

MR. JOHN MORRIS
63 PLEASANT ST. CAMBRIDGE, MASS.

Cambridge Man Says He Will Recommend Bon-Tone to Anyone

Mr. John Morris states: "Unless one has suffered from a disordered stomach they cannot realize what it means to find a remedy that gives relief. I have suffered from constipation since I was a child, and I know how does this Bon-Tone. My food seemed to be in my stomach like a lump of lead and gas would form and give me a great deal of trouble. I was over 10 years old when I was over I would feel all in and tired out and had no interest in anything. I was obliged to take laxatives frequently due to being constipated. I read a lot about Bon-Tone in the Boston Post so thought if it did so much for others it would help me too and it certainly has. My food no longer causes me distress but digests as it should and constipation is a thing of the past. I feel like a new man and I am and certainly feel like a different person and can assure you that Bon-Tone is worth giving a trial—it brings results."

Charlestown Lady Was in General Rundown Condition, But Bon-Tone Brought Relief

Mrs. Margaret D'Long, of 38 Princeton St., Charlestown, who is very well known, having lived in Charlestown all her life, says: "Three bottles of Bon-Tone has certainly done a lot for me. I was in a very bad condition and felt tired all the time and could not get any sleep. My stomach was out of order and gas would form from everything I ate, even when I ate very light food. I had no desire to eat. My kidneys troubled me and had pains in my back. I had a headache and could not get any sleep. I became very nervous and also suffered from dizzy spells. Bon-Tone has relieved me of all these troubles. I feel in good condition now. I have a good appetite and my food no longer forms gas. My stomach is in good condition and strong, dizzy spells gone, and my back and kidneys feel fine. I can get a good night's rest and wake up in the morning feeling full of pep and ready to go to work. I don't know how I had suffered and am rejoicing with me over the wonderful results."

MANY OPERA TREATS IN STORE—BETTY ALDEN

BOSTONIANS MUSICALLY minded will sit up and rub their eyes at the glowing prospect that another season will be spent in opera company waiting to be auditioned by the judges on the winter air and audience response at being in the limelight. Now it may require several days, since no less than a half dozen of grand opera organizations are to be musical offerings, and that, of course, is not the whole of it. And will bring the glow of anticipation to every one who takes up a decent part of his night's culture.

BIDDING FOR FAME AND attention will be the National Company, the Americans, the Americans and finally sponsored by the Civic Company, a three-man grand opera company, the Americans, and the further good measure a collection of songs and not as yet named, but having the dynamic Legnani as its promoter. And immediately in the foreground comes the National, making a very special bid to Boston's consideration since it has two charming young women singers on its list, two who have youth and good looks and a social background to aid them on the path to accomplishment.

MRS. HENRY LEE HIGGINSON, the younger, and Miss Lucretia Goodard Bush are the company's aspirants. Mrs. Higginson will sing the part of Isolde in "Cavalleria Rusticana," and Miss Bush lifts up her soprano voice in "Pagliacci." Many people hereabouts have followed interestedly the upward rise of Miss Bush, and others are as keenly interested that the former Miss Betty should return to the footlights, even temporarily. The former makes grand opera her life's serious purpose. The latter, of course, is more dilettante, being spouse to the holder of an honored Boston name and mistress of an establishment or two.

DOWN NEAR PROVIDENCE the Jacobs Hill Hunt will stop its slightly hill and waits for the spring to burst into tender green and so bring into the calendar May 18 and the annual horse show. They are a very proud coterie, the set that rides to bounds across the rolling countryside where Massachusetts and Rhode Island meet. And much of their pride centers in the very sportsmanlike horse show, the club's annual culture to the blue ribbon. And well may they feel thus, since through the years are but very few, nevertheless its place in the horse show lists is with the most important.

IF THE JACOBS HILL PEOPLE were to bake a birthday cake to celebrate this year's show there would be but four candles flickering bravely on it. But it's a lusty four-year-old—a promising youngster as horse shows go, and one New England welcomes whole heartily by luring several hundred entries and putting forward the best equine hopes its stables boast. Bostonians affiliated with the hunt and the horse show, the Birds, the Almy, the Tolman, the Loring and the Newharts will be there, in the ring and in the stands.

from that other standpoint—in social, its "night before" celebration is one to conjure with, if one loves to dine and then dance, as who does not in this age of endless expectation. And on the show day itself luncheon in the cheery clubhouse, once the William Grosvenor country place, is a midway interlude of delightful possibilities. And, furthermore,

Ruth Shubow, Hub Pianist, in Debut

Ruth Shubow, Boston pianist, gave a debut recital at Jordan Hall last night. Her performance was in many respects typical of scores who have made their first public appearance as artists. But it emphasized anew that pianists are as a whole, far better prepared musically than any other class of solo performers.

N. E. Council Plans 3d Industry Survey

For the third successive year the New England Council will make a survey of the migration of industry as it affects New England. Chairman John F. The council has conducted such surveys for 1926 and 1927, and is now making a similar survey covering 1928 through all the chambers of commerce and boards of trade throughout the six New England states.

Queen Marie, Ileana on Visit to Spain

Madrid, March 27 (AP)—Queen Marie of Rumania and her daughter, Princess Ileana, arrived today from France for a short visit in Spain.

tion for judging equine aristocrats with great freedom and astuteness. Messrs. Benjamin F. Cook, Chester Johnston, Knight and others of the show committee well may contemplate the approach of May 18 with much satisfaction, since without a doubt the day will add a feather to each of their several caps and give points to shows heretofore more hokey with age than the Jacobs Hill. For like its cousin at Cohasset, the Providence show grows with leaps and bounds.

TWO DAYS HAVE TO BE devoted to Cohasset's horse show. First, the still-very young set must have its innings. For days before the opening of the show they frantically about Cohasset's lady likes, putting favorite ponies through rigorous final schooling. The show's second day brings forth much of the cream of the local stable and affords the horses set the sort of outdoor exhibition it most enjoys. Mrs. William C. Osgood, secretary to this busy organization, announces a change of dates, from August 16 and 17 to August 23 and 24, and further states that her staff for the four-footed visitors will be provided in greater abundance than in former years.

APPROPOS OF THE HORSE loving set, Augustus Goodwin and his family come steaming home from England soon, via the good ship Leviathan that sails for this side next Saturday. Quite the most prominent of the sports set heretofore is Mr. Goodwin, a gentleman whose purse is ever open and whose well known desire to fully restore racing to the local picture is most heartily appreciated. Mr. Goodwin, with Mrs. Goodwin and their two daughters, Miss Betty Barrell and Miss Frances Goodwin, went abroad earlier in the season, and, of course, continued their stay to include the Grand National running. F'S STILL A MATTER OF conjecture whether this season's passing will include that most exhilarating of events, the invitation opening of the Brackenrides race track. The inauguration will of course be excellently done, with a Goodwin lavishness and flair for entertainment properly expressed.

See New Cooling Fluid as Boon to Aviation

Washington, March 27 (AP)—Ethylene glycol, common base for many anti-freeze solutions, was announced today as the chemical developed by army engineers to replace water as an airplane engine cooling fluid. Use of the chemical is foreseen as opening an unlimited field for development of water-cooled engines.

The fluid, which is clear, colorless and odorless, boils at 387 degrees Fahrenheit. It is a non-conductor of electricity and is necessary for water-cooled engines can be cut to one-fourth its present weight by use of the chemical cooler. The result is an increase of speed, reported by army engineers to 11 miles an hour on a standard engine and a proportionate increase in payload.

Only minor changes are required to make present water-cooled engines suitable for use of the chemical fluid.

HIGH OBJECT OF FLAG CONTEST STRESSED

During this phase of the Flag Contest—answering questions and preparing answers to the boys and girls contestants—it might be well for the heads of flag contest units to bring to the attention of those competing three important facts which feature this far-reaching movement.

The facts are:

The fundamental idea of the Flag Contest of the United States Flag Association is entirely new. It is this:

To vitalize and make interesting and enjoyable instruction that will spread understanding and develop appreciation of American ideals, traditions, principles, and institutions by entwining such instruction with the Flag of the United States—judge every good American honors an emblem in which all loyal citizens are naturally interested, symbolizing, as it does, all we see, all we hope to be.

The Annual Flag Contest of the United States Flag Association is not, in reality, a "contest" in the ordinary acceptance of the word as used in connection with prize competitions, which are enterprises of a temporary nature, each having a detailed, non-contingent purpose, but instead this Annual Flag Contest, which is an undertaking of a lasting, recurring nature, is a big, far-reaching educational movement in the interest of patriotism and good citizenship.

Intended to develop into the biggest patriotic youth movement in the history of the nation, it is hoped that in time the Annual Flag Contest of the United States Flag Association will become a permanent feature of the education program of the United States.

Since the Contest centers in the Flag of the United States—an emblem honored and revered by every loyal man, woman and child—the United States Flag Association and the sponsoring Boston Evening American are in a position to have the Flag Contest conducted on the highest possible plane.

The boat, carried diagonally by the swift current, twisted under the anchor cable, which struck Bear and knocked him overboard. Two divers began a hunt for his body.

Cardigan's Loves

A SIX-DAY NOVEL

Six-Day Novel by a Famous Author

Cardigan, a scientist, knowing bugs but not girls, is left twenty million dollars by his uncle provided he marries before his thirtieth birthday, less than a year away. Jeremiah Gates, executor, browbeats Cardigan into an experiment to find a wife to fulfill the requirements of the will. Fifty thousand dollars is to be put into the hands of Emily Van Dorn, impoverished society girl. If she fails the test, three allotments of fifty thousand dollars each are to be given Fay Sinclair, actress; Alice Miller, shop girl, and Miss Noel de Moton, concert pianist. Cardigan, with fifty thousand left, and moved by a quixotic impulse, opens a bank account with this for his secretary, Joan Madden, who has the look of a wild rose and the disposition of a cactus.

Emily Van Dorn turns Bohemian when wealth makes her independent of conventions. She moves into Greenwich Village apartment, refuses to marry Cardigan, but offers to enter into a free love pact.

CHAPTER I
CARDIGAN was aware that Em was behaving less like a bashful sweetheart than like a purposeful Delilah about to shove him off any impractical notions he might entertain regarding her accessibility.

"Of course you'll be free!" he murmured against her cheek: "We'll ask Bishop Taylor to leave 'obey out' if you wish. I wouldn't have you for a slave, Em."

She laughed softly, ran her perfumed hands along his face, kissed him and moved a little apart. There was mockery in her drooping eyes as she spoke.

"You speak of a sense of fit once the other day—you were pretty smart about 'it.' Peter?"

"Of course you meant a sense of convention—of what's endorsed by the mob."

"Sheep stuff, old dear. I'll never again let myself be bullied by anything as stupid. Indeed I began immediately my windfall put me where I no longer had to know to old ladies of both sexes to raise eyes with their pet conventions."

He started, revulsion pulling at his thought.
"Em! You don't mean..." but of course you've fair regard for yourself..."

"Don't be stupid. I'll dash over to Paris and you can meet me there. Who's go..."

URGENT STATE CLUB ON POWER MONOPOLY

Bishop Brent, Famed War-Time Leader, Is Dead

CAN'T JOIN NOTED WAR NAVY, HE'S SKIPPED DEAD A 'GIRL'

When the parents of "Fitz" Wright, now a hunk and adven- ture-loving youth of 17, christened him Florence, they laid up a lot of trouble for him.

Nevertheless, by virtue of a pair of ready fists and a chance of residence from Maine to Massachusetts, "Fitz" was beginning to think he had lived down his "sissy" name.

Then he tried to join the navy. He told Chief Petty Officer Harry Foster of Lynn that he was born March 6, 1912, at North Yarmouth, Me. He was O. K. physically, so Foster wrote to the Yarmouth town clerk to check up on his age.

Back then came a reply. Fitz was a girl. He was indeed born when he said, the names of his parents were as he had given them, but on the birth record books of his home village, "Fitz" was listed as a girl.

A clerical error was obviously at fault, but there'll be a lot of red tape to be unwound before "Fitz" can be an able seaman on any battleship of Uncle Sam.

Tigers Ready for Final Cup Series Opener Saturday

TIGER RECORD GOOD

Fontaine Cup Play Begins Saturday in Arena; Tigers Play Eagles or Reds

Boston Tigers continued their intensive preparation for the Fontaine Cup series, which will begin Saturday night in the Arena, with another hour's workout in the Arena today.

With prospects of action becoming immediate, the players put everything they had into their work.

At the Fontaine Cup, the clicking beautifully and there is no sign of a letdown in the arena.

TIGER RECORD GOOD

Tigers were hours ago once during the season by New Haven and, after dropping four to the Reds, they established superiority by taking three straight.

Both of the potential opponents possess elements of danger, now over. Marty Barry, New Haven center, finished at the top of the scoring honor list.

Art Chapman, who plays the corresponding position for Providence, was in second place, only a point behind.

BRUINS MEET RANGERS

during the season by the weak defense, they went stale. Due to the failure of Lee Bourgeois to hold up his end, and the failure of the Cook brothers, Bill and Ed, Frank Boucher, Paul Thompson, Butch Keeling, and Maurice Murdoch were forced to work like brooms all season and during the closing weeks, the first string trios has far below its usual high standard.

Fortunately for the Rangers, Paul Thompson, Maurice Murdoch and Butch Keeling were able to stand up under the extra work and kept the New York Club in the race.

Despite the fact that the New York Rangers have won over the Americans and Toronto's to the credit, the Bruins will be the favorite in the coming series. The Bruins took the measure of the Canadians in three straight games, a hitless unheard of feat.

The Bruins played the smartest brand of hockey they ever have shown and if they are not affected by the layoffs, they have better than an even chance of bringing the Stanley Cup here.

The Rangers left Toronto immediately after the game last night and are due here this evening, via Montreal. They have been through two hard series and now with only a two-day layoff, one of which will be spent in traveling, they must start a three-game series with the Bruins tomorrow night.

If ice is available in the Madison Square Garden on Saturday, the second game will be played in New York and if a third contest is required to decide the ownership of the Stanley Cup, it will take place at the Garden next Monday night.

The Bruins had the choice of the site of the first and third games in the coming series and it is only natural that they want to open at home. In hockey, more than any other branch of sports, the home team has a decided advantage for the referees are swayed by the crowd. This fact was brought home during the recent series with the Flyers. Frenchmen, for at the Garden the refereeing favored the Bruins, while the opposite was true in Montreal.

The Bruins held their first practice session, since the win of the Canadian series, at the Garden and they will work out again today. Elmer Hiltzman and Eddie Shore have practically recovered from the punishment they took in the Forum and the team is ready for the Rangers.

Lyons-Ireland Play

The first block of the challenge match between Joe Lyons, New England billiard champion, and Arthur Ireland of Lowell, will be played tonight at Lowell's State Billiard Club at 8 p. m.

Doctors Warn against undereating

Too little fat in the body makes us a prey to disease

EMINENT medical authorities are amazed and alarmed that so many girls and adults of both sexes are dieting themselves to a dangerous loss of weight.

A famous doctor says: "The most delicate parts of the body are always the ones to suffer first. A woman who is naturally sweet-tempered, good-natured, hard to get along with. A man who is thus starving himself becomes irritable and inefficient in the office and at home. . . . He begins to fall off in judgment and mental ability." This doctor goes on to show that nature stores up fat in the body as a reserve and that it is dangerous to destroy this reserve by dieting. Such an individual, he says, "becomes an easy prey for all manner of chronic ailments—kidney and liver diseases, and degeneration of the brain, spinal cord and nerves. . . . typhoid fever, pneumonia, influenza and colds."

How much more intelligent it is to eat varied, nourishing foods, rather than eliminating the one ingredient that adds flavor and enjoyment to all other foods. Sweetness is the ideal flavor. What is so tasteful and refreshing as a salad of fresh grapefruit—sweetened with powdered sugar—and lettuce? Eat enough fruits and cereals. The best cooks are generous with sugar. Heart Beats Sound Like 'Lame Horse Galloping'

New York, March 27 (AP)—New developments in iron production and a system for recording heart beats of different types of heart disease on phonograph discs were demonstrated before the annual dinner of the graduates of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology at the Waldorf-Astoria.

The process of recording the heart beats, which was perfected by Dr. Richard Cabot of Harvard, means, when used, that the doctor can keep a permanent record of his patient's progress. The test made of reproducing the heart beats from the disc on a loud speaker made them sound, as Dr. Sergius F. Grace said, "like a lame horse galloping down the street."

COLDS Stopped in a Day!

Don't let a cold hang on—to make you miserable and to invite gripe or flu. Stop it in a day by taking the thing that is specifically for a cold—HILL'S CASCARA-QUININE. HILLS ends a cold in twenty-four hours because it does the four things required:

1. Breaks up the Cold
2. Checks the Fever
3. Opens the Bowels
4. Tones the System

Only HILLS gives you this four-in-one effect. That's why HILLS is the stand-by of millions. Pay safe. At the first sign of a cold get a package of HILLS.

NO CLASS TO OPEN TUESDAY

The last first aid course of the season to be given by the Boston Metropolitan Chapter, American Red Cross, will start Tuesday, April 2, at 6:30 p. m., with Mr. Arthur D. Stanton as instructor. The course will be held once a week for 10 weeks, from 6:30 to 8:00 p. m., at the chapter headquarters, 45 Newbury st. The cost is $5, which includes all instructions, textbooks, examination, Red Cross first aid certificate, and all working materials. Registrations are now being accepted at headquarters.

Amusements

The training will be the same as that given to the members of police and fire departments, who must be ready to give emergency treatment in all sorts of accidents, from fainting and suffocation to broken bones.

More than half the deaths by accident could be prevented by the aid of the Red Cross in every shop and industrial plant, in every automobile, in every crowded theater, and even in every home.
